A woman who will act in this manner has something bad in her nature, and in spite of the terrible suffering she is afterward made to undergo, one campot less sight of the terrible fall. This will always weaken the character of "Lady Isabel." How puerile becomes this character beside that o "Hasel Kirke," for instance. The pathos o the part, however, was very finely shown by Miss Thompson tast night. Such as the character is she has to represent it, and it must be acknowledged that she acts so well in the part that she draws tears into the eyes of many, and almost makes her audience lose sight of the inconsistencies in "Isabel's" character. FELL THROUGH. Verdict of "Not Guilty" Returned in the

Water Company Case.

Thursday afternoon the case of the State against the Water company was given to the jury for decision. It is understood that the jurors came to an agreement an hour after they had the case given to them. However that may be, they reported the first thing yesterday morning that they had come to an and dealer enjoyed a little side-show of their understanding, and a verdict of not guilty own, was brought in. The verdict was very quictly received in the city yesterday. Very few persons expressed any indignation at the veriict, because at this time the company has its new machinery in full blast, and is supplying the city with a plentiful supply of water, and Wolf river just at present is clear, and no objection is brought to the kind of water furnished. Thus endeth the first

"I DUNNO." Light.

The Memphis bar has a bright ornament in Frank Brutus Anthony, colored, whose maiden speech in the Criminal Court was blished in the APPEAL some time ago. How Brutus ever secured a license is a mystery, for he possesses about as many qualifications for being an exponent of the law as a last year's snow-bird. Yesterday he had another case in the Criminal Court, being employed to defend Nabe Cook, for petit reeny. The chief witness against Cook was a woman, who testified very clearly to the theft. Brutus Anthony then got up to make his speech in the case, but remem-be log how Judge Horrigan had sat down on "Gentlemens ob de jury, if you believes frum de test mony dat my client here is guilty ob de charge brought aginst him, you must fine him guilty; but if you believes he is innocent, you must fine him not guilty." The Attorney-General said he was willing to have the case go to the jury on that ground, and contented himself saying noth-

When Judge Horrigan asked Anthony if he should make an oral charge to the jury, the negro merely grinned like an idiot, looking hopelessly around and saying nothing.

"Shall I instruct the jury verbally or in writing?" asked the judge.

"I dunno," said Brutus. Strange to say the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and Anthony had won his first case.

Rogers, Felix Jones, F. O. Robertson, J. J. Polk, T. J. Latham, Mrs. H. Mr. Henry Guy Carleton, of this city, his new tragedy for $5000, with an interest in the prospective receipts. The new play is a remarkable one, its scene being Egypt dur-ing the invasion of Cambyses of Persia. In A Heard, Miss Sue Pearson and Miss Dollie Dillard. Judges-Captain John D. Waldran, Dr. W. B. Rogers and F. O. Robertson. The horse of Mr. John Greer, which accomthroned by "Amasis," one of his generals, who panied Mrs. Heard, ran away, jumped the track and threw the rider. No damage was mprisonment for twenty-five years, bu done either horse or rider. Premium to Mrs. him. Just before his death a daughter i born to him, "Nitetus," the heroine of the After the awards were made, and during a little finishing display by the contestants, the borse of Mr. Greer took another run, but was hand of the daughter of "Amasis," but her checked by his rider running him into the fence, which resulted without accident.

The trotting race as announced did not take place, but the directors instituted for and "Cambyses" is so engaged that he and "Cambyses" is so enraged that he at once declares war against Egypt, invades and subdues it. "Memnon," the arch-prophet of Egypt, is the principal actor in the play. There were three entries: James Riley enters bay stallion Wade Hampton; C. Weatherford enters bay stallion Brian; George Radcliff enters bay mare Minnie R. First Heat.—Brian got the pole, Min-First Heat.—Brian got the pole, Minnie R. second and Wade Hampton third. After a few false starts the bunch left the string, Minnie leading, Brian next, and then Wade. Before Persia. "Memnon" is deposed, and "Nebu" in the first the string of the string o reaching the first quarter Brian worked to the lead, closely seconded by Minnie, with Wade a length behind. On the up-hill to ration of war by "Cambyses," the death of ration of war by "Cambyses," the death of the half-mile Minnie pushed steadily to the front, closely followed by Brian while Wade tugged away in the rear, which positions were maintained to the string, Minnie wing the heat with all case in 1551.
